

Welcome...

Fonte by Allgreen Group is a collection of the finest stones available in the UK. With manufacturing facilities processing from quarry block to the specification of architects and designers, Fonte provides a truly unique range of bespoke stone. From inspiration to installation, our team of stone experts will accompany clients on the journey every step of the way. With a dedicated sample department and ever helpful technical team we offer everything required for your projects.

Our experience with working with contemporary designs requiring crisp, clean lines or the fine worn rugged appearance of careful restoration, we have the expertise to create the finish required.

The variety of finishes, some of which are applied by hand by skilled masons, by purpose built machinery and by very nature itself, is something we are immensely proud of.

Countless years of combined experience drawn from generations of quarrymen and the tried and tested methods of expert masons is captured in one of the most unique collections of stones today.

We hope that you enjoy choosing your stone from this collection as much as we have enjoyed creating it.
