The creative concept of the children's hair salon was a focus on fun and entertainment. The space needed to be exciting but not sacrifice the functionality of a hairdressing salon.

Beyond its high resistance to footfall and cosmetic product spills, Amtico's LVT Signature collection allows for creativity, including bespoke cutting.

In the Dancing Scissors salon, several individual patterned areas were created, starting with a piano key effect on the path to reception desk, flowing into a monochrome polka dot floor divided up by large striped pattern walkways.

Two special colours were used for this project to create a crisp, flawless monochrome look to offset the soft finish effect of the concept.

We chose Amtico's floor because, apart from being a unique high-quality product, it enhanced our options in visualising a custom made design pattern, that totally blends in with the overall aesthetic of the space we aimed at creating. Both us and our client are thrilled with the eye-catching result.
