Dulux
TRADE
Trade & Trusted

“The paint needs to be hard-wearing... it’s a busy house so it needs to keep looking good”

Trusted by Joanna Boughey,
Devoted mother of two children

A finish that will look better for longer? Diamond delivers.

Dulux Trade Diamond continues to set the standard for durability and stain resistance. It's the range of water-based finishes tailored for the trade.

Whether you're working on busy living spaces, stairs, hallways, bathrooms, kitchens or really high traffic areas there's a low odour, quick drying Diamond finish that's sure to withstand heavy wear and repeated cleaning.

And now, with an improved formulation for Dulux Trade Diamond Matt and new ultra-tough Dulux Trade Diamond High Performance the standard is even higher.

"Hard-wearing in paint is important. I have total faith in it."

Trusted by Richard Reese, Professional Decorator

New, even more durable formulation*

With its new improved formulation, Diamond Matt delivers even greater durability and stain resistance, keeping that just painted look for longer. Plus there's an even flatter matt finish, perfect for hiding surface imperfections.
