Double Mega Deck Tower with Upper Decks, Physical, Plastic Slide

This huge, double tower play unit has it all: varied crawling, climbing, gliding and sliding from more levels, a wonderful view on the way to and from the tops of the towers and great play corners to gather in. It welcomes players from age 4 - 12 years and up and is roomy and sturdy enough to take even older players, also. This means that parents and care givers are welcome to play along with their children. Apart from being great fun for heaps of children, the variation of activities of the Mega Deck Towers offers good muscle and motor skills training, among others balance and cross-body coordination, for a wide range of children and their adults.
