

Palace is centred around a courtyard that is an ideal space for hide-and-seek, offering many possibilities for climbing and swinging on the play shells and hammocks. Each corner of the Palace has its own specialty: one portal addresses sand play with counters and curved panels, while across the yard an accessible tower with a slide invites children to slide and climb. Over the net, a low accessible tower with a double slide offers a more relaxed kind of sliding while the highest tower challenges the oldest and most experienced children with a vertical ladder access and a curved plastic slide.
