The Intrepid

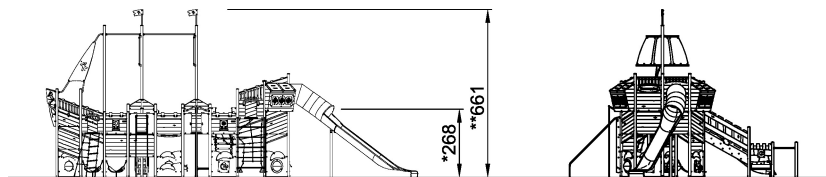

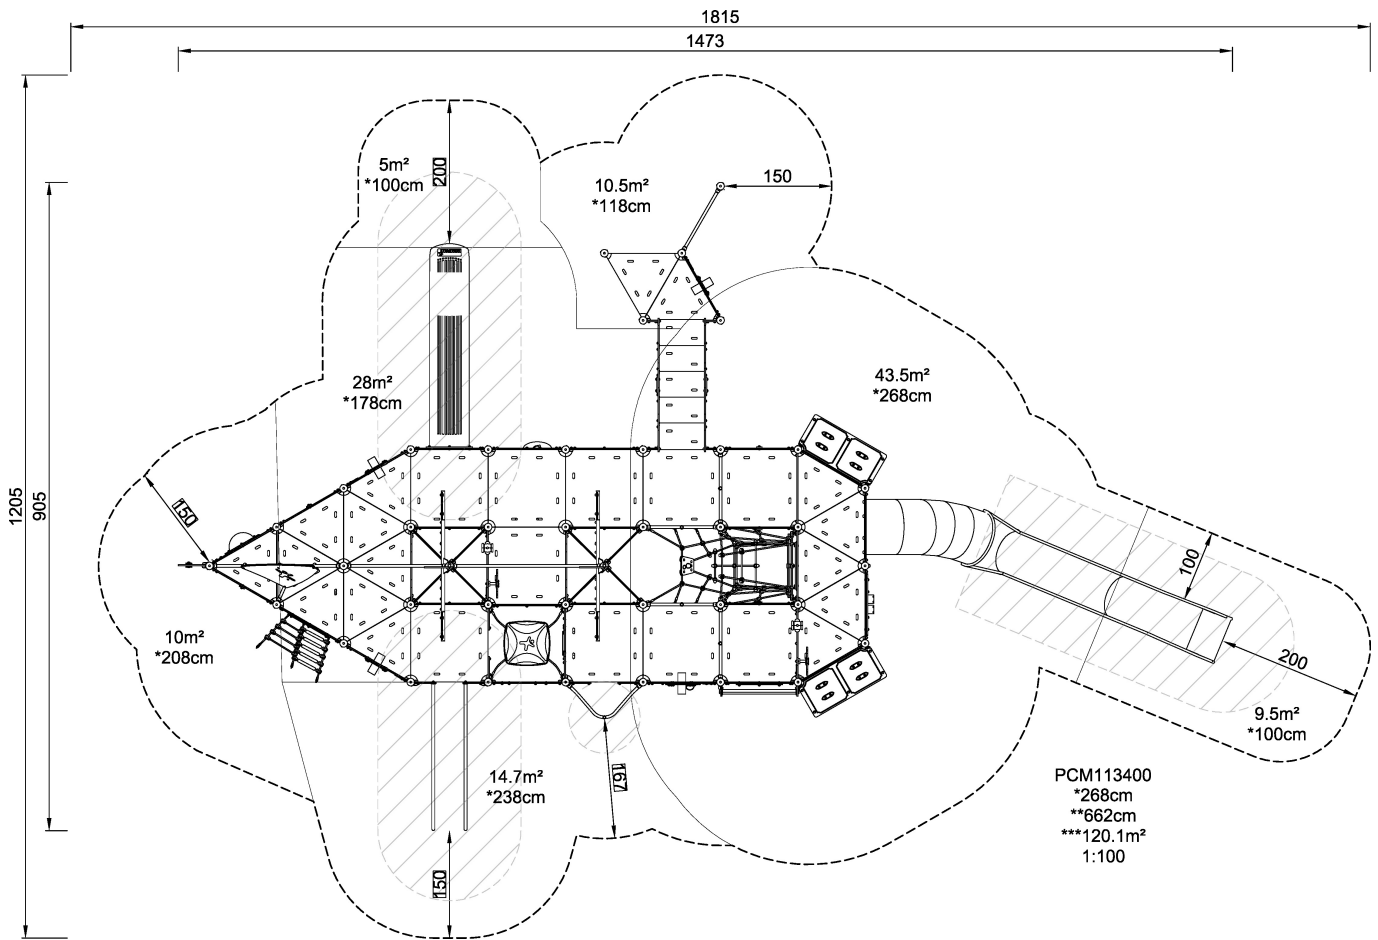

Themed play just got even better with this great ship. It's a stunning play equipment with outstanding play value on lower and upper deck. This allows everyone to play together. The manipulative and interactive components ensure endless hours of role- and imaginative play, which support children's social/emotional and cognitive/creative development. The exciting activities like the Banister bars, Fireman's pole and the net structure makes sure children are challenged and supported in their physical development.
