

Column Guard

Nothing slows down productivity like hitting a one-ton steel column.

And nothing provides a protective zone around columns like our easy-to-install, high-strength Column Guard. The modular, shock-absorbing assembly installs securely and cushions columns, equipment and drivers from impacts. Protect the structural integrity of your facility and the financial integrity of your business.

Easy Installation—Strap and ratchet system, no special skills or equipment required

Adjustable Fit—Modular design fits a variety of column sizes

Low Maintenance—Hi-visibility plastic requires no welding or painting
